

Quail Management in the High Plains

A USDA-NRCS/MSU Bobwhite Habitat
Restoration Project

Tuesday, May 22, 2007

Agenda

- 8:30 a.m. Register (Activities Center in Morton)
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome and Quail Biology 101 (Brad Dabbert, TTU)
- 9:15 a.m. The EQIP and Wildlife Management (Charles Coffman, NRCS)
- 9:45 a.m. Effects of the EQIP on Quail (Eric Abercrombie, TTU)
- 10:15 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Grazing and Brush Management (Ron Sosebee, TTU)
- 11:30 a.m. Prescribed Burning (Sandra Rideout-Hanzak)
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch (Provided at the Activities Center)
- 1:00 p.m. Leave to travel to field site at Muleshoe
(if weather prohibits outside activity we will stay at the Activities Center in Morton)
- 1:45 p.m. Identifying Key Quail Food and Cover Plants
(Charles Coffman, NRCS)
- 2:15 p.m. Starting Quail Cooperatives (Jason Brooks, TPWD)
- 2:45 p.m. Conducting Quail Call Counts (Eric Abercrombie, TTU)
- 3:15 p.m. Managing Harvest and Estimating Reproductive Success
(Brad Dabbert, TTU)
- 3:45 p.m. Adjourn